WELCOME TO THE 2016 SCOTTDALE FALL FESTIVAL

Welcome to the 2016 Scottdale Fall Festival. The Scottdale Fall Festival has been around for 42 years. Although the festival has had many names over the last 42 years, the principles never changed. The festival has always been a festival for the community of Scottdale. The idea started with the 100 year anniversary celebration of Scottdale. A group of Scottdale citizens created a celebration for the 100 year anniversary of the town. This group of people then decided to have an annual festival called the Scottdale Coke Heritage Festival. The year was 1974 when the first festival started. The festival would change names several times over the years until its present day name, The Scottdale Fall Festival. The present day name of the Scottdale Fall Festival has been around now for 19 years. This is one of many events that the citizens of Scottdale can be proud of. This festival was created by the community of Scottdale; for the community of Scottdale.

Over the last 42 years the festival has attracted people of all ages and helps promote local businesses in our community. This three day celebration has many events such as a dog show, live entertainment, a race, ethnic foods, children's area, a teen dance, and much more. A list of events, food, and entertainment can be found on pages 4-9. The Scottdale Fall Festival committee thanks you for attending and making this festival bigger and better each year!

The Scottdale Community has many different aspects one of which that the Scottdale Fall Festival would like to highlight with the 2016 program is the Arts. From the Guyer Performing Arts Center to the Scottdale Writers Club Scottdale has many different avenues for children and adults to express their artistic side. This program contains several articles highlighting the Scottdale Arts.

From the program chairman Thomas Szczygiel:

It has been my privilege for the last 10 years to provide the Scottdale Fall Festival and the Scottdale Community with the annual program. Although things have been rough in the past and mistakes have been made; a lot has been learned and a lot has been gained. I think back to when I first took over the program, how young and inexperienced I was, but how quickly I learned with the help of the committee. Through The Years was the first theme back in 2007 that I was given by the committee to work with for the program and I sit here today reflecting through the years of my experience at the Scottdale Fall Festival. Although the committee members have changed the values that the Fall Festival has stood for remains the same. This has been truly an exceptional experience that has helped shape me into a young professional and I would like to take the time to thank the Scottdale Fall Festival for giving me the opportunity to run this program year after year. I would strongly encourage any high school student or young adult that would like to gain experience in a professional environment to join the Scottdale Fall Festival. Although the task that we do may not directly relate to your field of study, the professional atmosphere that the Scottdale Fall Festival operates under is the same you will find in any career. Thank you for a great 10 years!

Stevee Wellons Band

Each of the musicians in this group have spent years playing blues, soul, jazz and rock music around the country. The band members have known each other forever and talked off-and-on about how much fun it would be working together - some day. Finally, the time was right and The Stevee Wellons Band (SWB) came to life. Working together has led the group in some unexpected directions. The Blues Society of Western Pennsylvania gave SWB the honor of representing the region for the 2016 International Blues Challenge in Memphis, TN. That experience provided encouragement and inspiration for the group to work on creating their own mix of blues and soul music. The band is taking their music out on the club and concert circuit in Pennsylvania, and working toward their first full-length CD for release later in 2016.

Tony Janflone

Tony Janflone, Jr. knew what he wanted to do with his life at the early age of 13. He wanted to be a guitarist. He had been playing since the age of 9 and having been influenced from his earliest days by his father, also a guitarist, and his exposure to all facets of music, Blues, Rock, R&B, Jazz, Country, and Classical, his love of music was inherent and not to be denied. Tony enjoys success with his group, "The Tony Janflone Jr Band", capturing the nomination for five years for Pittsburgh's Best Jazz/Blues Guitarist for the Stroh's/In Pittsburgh Music Awards. He has also captured the 1995 award for the Best album for his CD Pieces, best vocalist and best band. Tony's performing credits include opening for or performing with, B.B.King, The Fabulous Thunderbirds, George Thorogood, Joe Bonamassa, Hiram Bullock, Reb Beach, Tommy Castro, Dionne Warwick, Natalie Cole, Toninho Horta, Janis Siegel, Steely Dan, The Yellowjackets, David Sanborn, Joe Williams, Diane Reeves, The Manhattan Transfer, Larry Carlton, Stanley Clarke, Billy Cobham, Jeff Beck, Carlos Santana, Ted Nugent, Jimmy Thackery, Richard Elliot, Brian Simpson, Rick Braun, Peabo Bryson, Gladys Knight, Sandi Patty, Chris Duarte, and Chicago. International Billboard Jazz charts. Promoting the effort took him to New York's Bottom Line and Washington DC's Blues Alley. While in DC, he and the group performed on BET and the Jazz on BET network television show that is broadcast nationwide. Tony's aspiration is to perform music all over the world and to share his enthusiasm for music with people everywhere. Some people have already picked up his enthusiasm and here is what they had to say: The Gavin Report, (an international music trade publication) says, "One of our favorite undiscovered talents".

Whiskey 101

We play New And Classic Country Music with Classic Rock thrown in! We will play some off the wall songs at times just because we can! We love all kinds of different music but focus on New & Classic Country and Classic Rock. Music you can Dance too! Music you can Drink to! Come out and party along with us! We play bar music and bar songs. We can also easily play at Festival and Fairs. Been there, done that! Enjoy those show just as much! When the fans are dancing, drinking and singing a long then we are having fun! So get to a show and lets PARTY!

Shiva Skydriver

Shiva Skydriver is a three-piece Rock & Roll band from Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania. They've performed from Raleigh, NC to Los Angeles, CA. They released their self-titled debut album in December of 2015. They recently added multi-instrumentalist Jane West to the live band to recreate their studio sound. The band includes Kelsey James, Ed Skero, and Jack Martin.

Elmoz Fire

Elmoz Fire entertains audiences with the very best in Soul, Funk and R&B Dance music. The band is fronted by two dynamic vocalists and backed by very talented instrumentalists. A true R&B show band that covers a broad spectrum of styles. Elmoz Fire features the vocal talents of Gus Collins and Ron Griglia. Each of the vocalists brings unique, complimentary abilities to the stage that add endless variety to the band's overall sound. Seasoned pro instrumentalists open each show and take the crowd for a fun ride down memory lane. The band's backbone is the powerful rhythm section combination of Butch Ahern on drums with keyboardist Gary Honnifer adding the dynamic bass lines. As the grooves are laid down, the sound is taken to the highest level by the amazing virtuosity of keyboardist Gary Honnifer and the rock-solid chops of guitarist Dennis Trivilino. Combined they melt together into a "Perfect Blend" known as the Elmoz Fire Band.

Street Level

Street Level is an 9 piece rock/funk machine that offers to take any event that you have to the next level of entertainment. This recipe of rock and funk is baked to perfection to satisfy your musical appetite. Let's start with the "Funk Fathers", a rock solid rhythm section that makes up the foundation of this delicious cake, add to the recipe a 3 piece horn section called the "Heaven's Gate Horns" to fill up the layers, and finally the icing on the cake, not 1 but 4 talented vocalists that will get you out of your seats and heading up to the dance floor for a heapin', helpin' of rock and soul goodness.

So if you want a deliciously good time with zero calories, come out to see Street Level and get served!

Abilene

Country music group Abilene debuted in the early 1980's. The band was composed of Herb Humphreys on lead guitar and vocals, Keith Taylor on keyboards and vocals, Larry Miller on bass and vocals, Jay McKnight on acoustic guitar, fiddle and vocals, and Randy Rhodes on drums.

Abilene traveled the tri-state area, playing in Ohio, West Virginia, and Maryland and recorded two local hits, (You Don't Need to Need Me Now and Louisiana Feeling). For several years, the band was the opening act for national performers and won a number of 'Battle of the Bands' and other contests. One win landed them on the stage of "Jamboree in The Hills" in 1984, which led to a performance on the popular Nashville "You Can Be A Star" television show on the CMT network.

Over the past 30 years, and coming and going of band members, Abilene has shared the stage with such greats as Alabama, Ronnie Milsap, The Statler Brothers, Pure Prairie League, Conway Twitty, Waylon Jennings, Charlie Daniels, Dr. Hook, Eddie Rabbit, and the Judds.

In the past year, original members Herb, Keith and Larry reunited, and welcomed drummer and vocalist Tim Burkhart into the group, combining a great mix of musical talents.

Dancing Queen

January 9th 1999, in the Pittsburgh area, a new act called "DANCING QUEEN" hit the club scene. Covering the best of 70's & 80's disco, funk and dance music, "DANCING QUEEN" had the look, attitude and excitement as if to throw you straight back to a 70's or early 80's live disco party! Since then, "DANCING QUEEN" has done over 1000 shows in more than 50 night clubs, private party venues, and outdoor events around the tri-state area.

"DANCING QUEEN" keeps it's audience jammed on the dance floor from start to finish "stringing" one song straight into the next while the music's pumping with up to 4 part harmony sailing above it all!

METRO

Metro is a dynamic 4 piece band featuring 3 lead vocalist instrumentalist backed by a driving rhythm section. The band was formed in 1989 out of a shared love of music and a passion to entertain fans with dance music, while having a great time doing it. With an eclectic mix of music encompassing R & B, Country, Funk, Motown, Pop, and Rock that captivate the listening audience while performing high-energy dance music and lively party songs that make Metro one of the most unique and entertaining dance bands around. This dynamic four-piece ensemble consists of Elisha Costello (vocals), Chris Caruso (bass, vocals), Jeff Pogas (guitar, vocals) and Bob Breakiron (drums, percussion). Metro performs over 100 shows a year including nightclubs, fundraisers, private parties, fair, festivals, weddings, and more.

A truly diverse band, Metro's members each bring unique talents to the stage and deliver high energy shows that make their faithful fans want to dance all night. Metro's fun-loving spirit and undeniable musical talent come together to give you a fantastic experience that you won't soon forget.

Steve Hawk

“Steve Hawk is taking his experience as the front man, singer/song-writer of Pittsburgh’s band, Forgotten Nobody (2005-2008), to his own level. With the success of Forgotten Nobody on local Pittsburgh Radio and Myspace.com, when FN went on hiatus after 2008, Hawk picked up the pieces of a life without singing and playing original Rock & Roll. He’s now doing so in a solo Do or Die fashion!

Keeping personally sacred songs and experiences in his back pocket for many years, Hawk is now emptying the lint, breaking out solo, acoustic, raw, and real. Stricken with the blues, laced with punk, and feeling the hangover of old rock & roll, Steve has been out in the Southwestern Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio music scenes for 3 years, enjoying the solo acoustic rock & roll lifestyle. Steve Hawk is now enjoying new fans, relishing old-icing the bruises of the past, dusting off his leather jacket and getting ready to bring the swagger and energy of what one man with one guitar can bring. Just like the old days.”

Firefly Entertainment Show

Andy Raehl will entertain you with a show including juggling, magic, unicycling, and more! Andy has entertained crowds at the Richland Community Days, Harmony Grange Fair, Party at the Pointe, and many parties, parades, and festivals.

Flow N’at Workshop & Fire Show

Flow N’at will present a hula hoop workshop to learn how to hula hoop, have contests, and one lucky winner will win a custom hula hoop to keep! The Flow N’at Fire Show will entertain people of all ages with lights, hula hoops and fire! The group will perform around dusk so the show will really come alive!

Rock N Roll Pet Store Kids Show

Mike Zaffuto will be entertaining the children with his songs and stories. He will take the children on a journey to a wonderful pet shop using music, magic, and animals. Mike has performed at many fairs, festivals, parks and more!

Scottdale Concert Band

The Scottdale Concert Band began its formation in May of 1981 as Bert/ Maureen Shirer and Rhonda Allison explored the possibility of starting a community band. With the backing of the Scottdale Band & Trust, Scottdale Rotary and local funding, the band was formed and played its first concert at the Scottdale Gazebo in 1982 under the direction of Fredrick Eberharter. Now 34 years later the band continues to entertain through its music. The band has had 7 directors to date and is currently under the direction of Warren Shirer, son of two of the original founders. The bands musical focus is wide including Big Band, Patriotic, Marches, Show Tunes as well as popular and Classic band literature. The bands membership age expands from high school to 80yrs and includes the counties of Allegheny, Fayette, Greene and Westmoreland. Several members drive over an hour for rehearsals.

The band enjoys finding that person who played in the past and wants to start up again. Our motto is "We never grow too old to play, we grow old because we do not play". The band rehearses Tuesday evenings, 7:30-9:00 in the basement of the Christ United Methodist Church on Market Street. If you have any interest in the band please contact 724-628-1988 or 724-887-4344.

Return of Royalty Scottdale Fall Festival 2016

Just as the leaves of fall colorfully change the backdrop of our lives, the Scottdale Fall Festival will be again beautifying it's annual festival with the Return of Royalty to it's offerings over the three day festival weekend.

Committee Chair: Jennifer Schwartz- Flack, holding this title of Scottdale's fall festival queen twice, once in 1985, and then again in 1993. She recognizes the need to enhance the self esteem of our young ladies & youth in general. Highlighting their strengths and feeling as if they are a part of something special is our main priority, in addition to being involved in community events and giving back. The girls all sell ballots which serves as votes for them, as did the contests of years prior sold membership tickets.

The past Queens, Duchesses, and other royalty will be requested to make an appearance at the Return of Royalty coronation ceremony which will be held on Friday September 16, 2016 beginning at 4:30pm, and immediately following the newly crowned court will be present for the opening ceremonies for the annual festival.

2-4 years old- Little Miss Scottdale, 5-12 years old -Miss Scottdale, and ages 13-18 years old.

THANKSGIVING TREASURERS

Autumn leaves are falling, the smell of Chestnuts in the air.
Once again God has provided, we can see it everywhere.
Our barns are stocked for winter, our livestock bedded down.
Rows of wooden snow fence, in the fields from here to town.
As we look up to the dull gray sky, we see a snow white Dove
We've received another Treasure, from our Father up above.
Firewood stacked high....for winter nights....canned peaches on the shelf.
Once again God has provided, look around and see your wealth.
Family gathered round the table....all heads bowed....we'll now say grace.
For the Christian life God gave us..... no one ever can erase.
So many times we stop and say, has God forgotten me ?
A tear falls slowly down your cheek, as you pray on bended knee.
Take a minute now and gently.....hold on to someone's hand.
And think of all the treasurers, that you've shared upon this land.
Treasurers come in many wrappings, each one is not the same.
Each treasure very special, on each label is your name.
So when you're tired and lonely, bow your head and Thank the Lord.
For the many many blessings, that your Treasure Chest has stored.

Dennie Huber
The Scottdale Fall Festival would like to extend their deepest condolences to the wife and fans of Dennie Huber. Dennie unexpectedly passed away in June. Dennie has been entertaining children and adults at the fall festival since 2010. He was a regular in the children's area and in the parade. Even though Dennie has been entertaining the Scottdale community for six years, he never had an empty seat at his shows. This was because of the wonderful ability that Dennie had to engage the children with his magic, his great personality, and amazing balloon creations. We were very fortunate to get to know Dennie and experience his shows and balloon creations. Dennie will be missed at the festival for years to come. The Scottdale Fall Festival Committee and community would like to thank Dennie and his wife Donna for attending our festival and sharing his love of magic.

Geyer Performing Arts Center

The Geyer Performing Arts Center was originally built in 1900 and operated by Andrew Geyer as the Geyer Opera House. In 1912 the building was sold and renamed The Scottdale Theatre. In the early years, the main entertainments produced were minstrels, operettas, and vaudeville acts. A 1926 major reorganization changed the focus from live performances to movies. The new marquee read The Strand and John Bixler was appointed as manager of the movie house. Our theatre was one of the first in the area to be equipped with a Vitaphone system for the new talking pictures of the era. In 1942 Mr. Bixler became the owner of the theatre and continued to show movies until 1969.

Cats the Musical from July 2016

The Lights were turned off in 1971 and the building sat dark and quiet for over 16 years. Then in April of 1987 a group of citizens formed The Scottdale Showtime Inc., purchased the building, and began renovations. In 1988 the Actors and Artists of Fayette County produced the first show, Man of La Mancha. In 2005, Showtime reorganized and drew upon its history for a new name – The Geyer Performing Arts Center. The Geyer Performing Arts Center, a 501c3 non-profit charitable organization & an EITC eligible charity, remains the owner of this building, which is a tangible like to the area's prosperous past.

There next live proformance will be Rumors and Little Shop of Horrors for more info and tickets go to www.geyerpac.com

The Return

Lacuna watched from the low ridge behind the village, watching and waiting for the men of the village to return from their search for the great whale. The morning sun warmed her back as she kept her vigil. She looked with some alarm at the large clouds coming over the great mountain peak to her left. Behind this peak was where the sun went at night to sleep. Mt. Orra was sacred to the Sea People; no-one ever ventured on the mountain without first being purified by the village shaman. To offend the Gods was punishable by banishment from the village or worse, even death. To be banished from the village in the dark time, the time of the Starving Moon, was a death sentence in this land of snow and ice. In the dark times the great white bear roamed this land in search of food.

The dark clouds gave warning of coming rain and wind. Having seen only fifteen summers Lacuna was following in the footsteps of her mother; Tucana, a great healer. She felt a great responsibility on her frail shoulders. She scanned the horizon in desperate search of her village fishermen. She knew in her heart that the weather could change without warning and cause driving rain and high rough seas endangering their lives. If the fisherman found the great whale there would be food for many moons, perhaps until next sun season. Lacuna pulled her light parka close around her and continued her vigil. Her water skin lay beside her, now almost empty. The wind in her face teared her eyes as she scanned the far horizon. A small dot appeared where sky met sea, then vanished. Several minutes later it appeared again, then vanished. Within three fingers of time Lacuna could see five dots getting larger and larger. "They return from the hunt." Lacuna scrambled down off her perch and ran into the village with the good news. Five boats return, all are safe.

OH, OCTOBER

Flirtatious October teases me with warm temperatures one day and bone chilling cold the next. Foggy, damp mornings tickle goose bumps up & down my arms; while a full moon can bring out the beast in me. Squealing leaf-shaking winds are but a prelude to the blustery winds of winter. Death is all around me. October does not lie in the dead of winter, but I can see the autumn season dying before my very eyes. Greenery gives way to muted hues of brown, rust and decay. The space between sunrise and sunset has narrowed, bringing me home sooner seeking warmth. A misty overcast sky demands that draperies be drawn shut. Sadness creeps in like the unwanted cold draft that slips in between the windows and door.

The house is haunted by past Octobers when our boys were young and Halloween reigned supreme. I can still hear their laughter and giggles telling tales of their adventures "trick or treating" through the neighborhood. Ignoring the fruit given, a bountiful bag of mouth-watering candy and goodies offered the ultimate temptation of decadent chocolates. The vibrations of the past are recaptured for a fleeting moment. Lost in myself, I listen to the slow hard pounding in my breast savoring these lovely memories.

October is the still point before the mad rush of the holidays. It is the best time to take stock of what I have and have not accomplished. A warm glowing lamp can brighten the darkest day providing light and insight during this quiet time of the year. The delightful autumn accents of pumpkins, cornhusks and acorns should promote a cornucopia of calmness. October can be fickle, but its job is to ease us into the dark, dreary days of winter. Therefore, from time to time it send a little warmth our way.

Change is in the air. The trees are crying as leaves fall like teardrops upon October's crusted face. Weather and our inner feelings emerge to schedule the timetable of our lives. Moving forward, I shall embrace the sequence of time, one day at a time.

Nostalgia

She finds herself
there on a small wooden plank flanked by weathered, twisted ropes attached to an old Hickory tree, merely sitting motionless with tranquil thoughts of yesteryear, but then she decides to pump her legs forward and then back,
again and again,
gaining enough lift
to feel like she is 5 or 6 again, enjoying the sensation
How could grown ups abandon the sensation?
Up and back,
legs pumping harder now
If she gets enough momentum, maybe she can swing back the years,
like a time machine,
swing back... to a time when,
if evil prevailed in the world,
she was still ignorant and naïve... to a time when hot summer evenings yielded memories of catching bugs that lit up with bare hands, old wooden-cased windows cracked open for what little drafts would grace her as she slept, and ice cream trucks that blared, "Music Box Dancer," a whimsical tune her grandma would repeatedly play for her on her console record player... to a time when people used index fingers in circular dials to wind numbers and speak with each other for hours, twisting coiled cords when conversations lost their intrigue...
to a time when most fears were unknown, covert, and words like "taxes," "ticks," "terrorism," and "tyrants"

were not yet part of her diction... to a time when she sang songs in church that can't be found on any search engine--
"I'm gonna put on my walking shoes/Go out and tell the world the good, good news..."...
to a time when neighbors were like family,
and many loved ones, young or old,
were still alive and well...
to a time when she would daydream about the vast world out there and know that, one day, she would experience and see a lot of it yet still cherish her small-town childhood and simple, humble upbringing... to a time when opinions didn't cause war, hatred, or divisions and before adulthood and life's injustices would come barging in, uninvited...

Porches of the Past

It was a summer of wisteria
In the grass fireflies drifted.

Out on the porch; a mood, a feeling.
From magnificent galleries – to humble back stoops.

A transition from the primitive outdoors
To protected, treasured interiors.

The porch, a place to conduct business
Turn away salesmen,

To welcome friends and converse with family.
The porch, a place of charged encounters of love and hate.

Always remembered with a swing and rocking chairs
Fresh made lemonade and ice tea.

The light slap of the screen door, the Creak of the swings chains

The carpenter bees, black and fat
Drilling holes in the eaves.

A fly swatter nearby.

Gone now; a piece of a vanished past world
We barely know how badly we miss.

The Scottdale Writers Group

The Scottdale Writers Group is one of the best kept secrets in town. Our writers group is a small local group formed in the latter months of 2008. Our group numbers between 15 and 20. Our aim and soul purpose is to help aspiring writers attain their next level of proficiency. We are not professional writers, editors or agents but a group of want-to-be writers looking for our place in the sun. Some of us are published and some are not. It is our goal to see all of our members with published credits of some form. We range in age from 13 years of age to over 70. Our writer's interests run the gamut from science-fantasy to poetry to technical newspaper writing and everything in between. The common thread that ties us all together is the love of the written word.

We hold our meetings in the relaxed atmosphere of the new and spacious Scottsdale Public Library where we welcome anyone with an interest in writing, regardless of age of skills.

Scottdale Fall Festival Scholarship Winner

The 2016 Scottdale Fall Festival scholarship is awarded to a Southmoreland senior. This person is involved in the community and has displayed leadership qualities. The 2016 Scottdale Fall Festival scholarship winner is Blaise Wisniewski. Blaise has been involved with school activities such as Concert Band, Jazz Band/Ensemble, Wind Ensemble, and Chorus Highlander Choir. Some of her Honors and Accolades include, National Honor Society, Tri-M Music Honor Society, PMEA All-State Musician, and NAFME All-Eastern Honors Concert Band. Some other volunteering activities within the community include Jim Sheppard Music Instruction: private saxophone lessons and quartet/studio performances, Scottdale Fall Festival Student Representative (2015-2016)/Committee Member, and St. John's Byzantine Catholic Church: C.C.D. member, acolyte, choir member. Blaise's parents serve as her most notable influence and goes on to say "I am very blessed to have parents who love and care about me very much". They are her rock and have continuously supported Blaise in all that she does. Without her parents, she said "I would not have a greater understanding of life and the knowledge of how to respond to life-changing moments". Blaise goes on to say "At the end of each and every day, my parents are there for me; my parents are my best friends". Blaise will continue her education at Pennsylvania State University, University Park to obtain a BSN and will attend graduate school to be an eventual nurse anesthetist (CRNA) and to specialize within pediatrics. Through advanced practice nursing, she will be able to achieve her life goal of positively impacting individuals while enjoying a high degree of autonomy and professional respect.
